Use case name: Pay membership fee

Description: Member goes to the gym and pays membership fee based on different types of membership

Use case name: Renewing Membership

Description: Member renews membership either automatically or manually after getting the reminder. The member can also choose not to renew the membership

Use case name: Remind about renewal

Description: Manager sends our renewal reminder to the active members. The manager also tries to re-interest the current members who are inactive.

Use case name: Advertise

Manager advertises about the gym to prospective customers and gym members.

Use case name: Track members active time

Gym system keeps track of active time of current members. The system uses the data collected to generate report about active and inactive members. The report will be used by manager to offer special discount to the active members.

Use case name: Track prices

Gym system keeps track current members prices of each members. This will enable the members to renew their membership in their regular price. This also helps manager to send the renewal reminder letter.